

Rider Profile

- Adrian Harry

The Xtreme Trials Show is professionally and safely performed by Adrian Harry who is Australia's No. 1 international motorcycle trials rider. He has had a succession of national and international awards under his belt including:

- ◆ Five 'Special First Class' awards in the Scottish 6 Days Trial
- ◆ Two 'Silver Spoons' in the 'Scott' Trial - UK
- ◆ Three national podium finishes
- ◆ Three European podium finishes
- ◆ Two Victorian Expert titles and currently undefeated in South Australia.

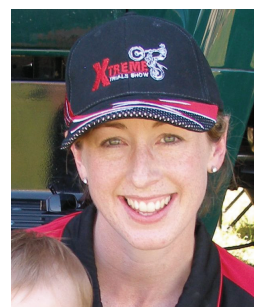

He has also represented Australia four times at the 'Trials des Nations' which is the Olympics of motorcycle trials.

Adrian began performing shows in 1997 and entertained crowds at the Royal Adelaide Show and various country shows and events around the state. He then embarked on a six year 'trials' journey overseas living and riding in countries such as New Zealand, Europe and the United Kingdom. He has now returned to Australia to live and is taking his performances to a new level.

He is married to Tanya and they have three young children under five years of age.
